Item 3.01 Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing or Notice of Delisting.

On August 7, 2019, InspireMD, Inc. (the “Company”) received notification (the “Deficiency Letter”) from the NYSE American LLC (“NYSE American”) that the Company does not meet continued listing standards of the NYSE American as set forth in Part 10 of the NYSE American Company Guide (the “Company Guide ”). Specifically, the Company is not in compliance with Section 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide because the Company reported stockholders’ equity of less than $6 million as of June 30, 2019, and net losses in its five most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2018. As a result, the Company has become subject to the procedures and requirements of Section 1009 of the Company Guide.

The Company must submit a plan of compliance to NYSE Regulation by September 6, 2019, addressing how it intends to regain compliance with Section 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide by August 7, 2020. If the plan is accepted by NYSE Regulation, the Company may be able to continue its listing during the plan period, during which time the Company will be subject to periodic review to determine whether it is making progress consistent with the plan.

If the Company does not submit a plan, or if the plan is not accepted by NYSE Regulation, delisting proceedings will commence. Furthermore, if the plan is accepted but the Company is not in compliance with the continued listing standards by August 7, 2020, or if it does not make progress consistent with the plan during the plan period, the NYSE American will initiate delisting proceedings.

The Company’s management is reviewing its options to address the deficiencies and expects to submit a compliance plan on or before the deadline set by the NYSE American.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On August 9, 2019, the Company issued a press release disclosing receipt of the Deficiency Letter from the NYSE American. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference herein.

InspireMD Announces Notification of NYSE AMERICAN Listing Deficiency

Tel Aviv, Israel — August 9, 2019 – InspireMD, Inc. (NYSE American: NSPR), developer of the CGuard™ Embolic Prevention System (EPS) for the prevention of stroke caused by the treatment of carotid artery disease, today announced that it has received a letter from the NYSE American on August 7, 2019, indicating that InspireMD does not meet a certain NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE American”) continued listing standard as set forth in Part 10, Section 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide of the NYSE American, due to the fact the Company had reported stockholders’ equity of less than $6 million as of June 30, 2019, and had net losses in its five most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2018. The Exchange’s notice has no immediate effect on the listing of the Company’s common stock on the Exchange. The Company’s management is reviewing its options to address the deficiency and expects to submit a compliance plan to the NYSE American on or before September 6, 2019, the deadline set by the Exchange, addressing how it intends to regain compliance with Sections 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide by August 7, 2020.

About InspireMD, Inc.

InspireMD’s common stock is quoted on the NYSE American under the ticker symbol NSPR and certain warrants are quoted on the NYSE American under the ticker symbol NSPR.WS and NSPR.WSB.

Forward-looking Statements

This press release contains “forward-looking statements.” Such statements may be preceded by the words “intends,” “may,” “will,” “plans,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “projects,” “predicts,” “estimates,” “aims,” “believes,” “hopes,” “potential” or similar words. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, are based on certain assumptions and are subject to various known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company’s control, and cannot be predicted or quantified and consequently, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, risks and uncertainties associated with (i) market acceptance of our existing and new products, (ii) negative clinical trial results or lengthy product delays in key markets, (iii) an inability to secure regulatory approvals for the sale of our products, (iv) intense competition in the medical device industry from much larger, multinational companies, (v) product liability claims, (vi) product malfunctions, (vii) our limited manufacturing capabilities and reliance on subcontractors for assistance, (viii) insufficient or inadequate reimbursement by governmental and other third party payers for our products, (ix) our efforts to successfully obtain and maintain intellectual property protection covering our products, which may not be successful, (x) legislative or regulatory reform of the healthcare system in both the U.S. and foreign jurisdictions, (xi) our reliance on single suppliers for certain product components, (xii) the fact that we will need to raise additional capital to meet our business requirements in the future and that such capital raising may be costly, dilutive or difficult to obtain and (xiii) the fact that we conduct business in multiple foreign jurisdictions, exposing us to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, logistical and communications challenges, burdens and costs of compliance with foreign laws and political and economic instability in each jurisdiction. More detailed information about the Company and the risk factors that may affect the realization of forward looking statements is set forth in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Investors and security holders are urged to read these documents free of charge on the SEC’s web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
